STUDENT BOARD MEMBER UPDATE

Mr. Felumlee reported that Homecoming was a success. Everyone enjoyed being outside. He talked about how nice it is to see the student section at the games again. Mr. Fee expressed that he was happy to be here. He mentioned that the girls’ soccer team was ranked 6th and will be playing in the district tournament. He also gave an update on Renaissance.

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

Ms. Martin reported that the State is still working on the budget.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE FLOOR

Ms. Kristen Rose, Intermediate Teacher, read a letter to the Board Members who are leaving the Board. She said we have a great school district and she wouldn’t stay in a school district that was of lesser quality. She referred to a book she read, In Search of Wisdom by Joyce Meyer in which it describes that strife is like a cancer and the Lord detests it. She went on to say that the leadership has shielded the teaching staff from the political storms so we can teach. She ended by saying “Thank You” to the Board and school leadership.

BOARD DISCUSSION

Mrs. Wills expressed her admiration of what is happening in the FFA and their recent Chili Cook-off. Mrs. Crum described the FFA elementary program that occurred last week.
