APRIL 2017

David Hile, Superintendent

Volume 11, Issue 9

Jami Rockey, one of our outstanding 5th grade teachers, was presented with the Coughlin You Make Difference Award, one of the premiere teaching awards in Licking County. Jami was nominated by her student, Haley Roach. Haley said “Mrs. Rockey is like family to me . . . and she makes me want to be a 5th grade math teacher.” This is what educators do that can’t be measured, tested or evaluated. Please take the opportunity to congratulate Jami. This is Jami’s 3rd teaching award!!!

Leigh Anne Fickes, LVMS science teacher, was awarded one of five 2017 Tibbie Leslie Travel Grants awarded via the Licking County Foundation. The grant provides educators the opportunity to travel the world to study and then share their knowledge with their students. Leigh Anne will travel to Iceland later this year and can't wait to take a picture of herself standing on the Mid-Atlantic Ridge to share with her students when they study the plate tectonics unit in science class. Please send Leigh Anne your congratulations!

Mr. Beery, Middle School Principal, Leigh Anne Fickes, LVMS Science teacher, and Mr. Hile, Superintendent
